DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 20-23 and 37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

3. With respect to Claim 20: the phrase “decoded to recover at least the user’s previously provided biometric information” is indefinite. It is unclear to the examiner if the previously provided biometric information that same that is “received” previously in the claim. Therefore causing it to be unclear if the barcode is encoded with the biometric information received previously in the claim, previously stored, or both. The examiner suggest removing the phrase “previously provided” as it is not used further in the claims.

4. Claim 23 recites the limitation "the biometric information". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Is this the biometric information that is received, or previously provided?

Double Patenting

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the “right to exclude” granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re

Art Unit: 3629

Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. Claims 1, 2, 7, and 8 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-12, 42-53 of copending Application No. 09/759566. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the difference between the present application and the copending application, is the use of electronically transmitting the barcode instead of a paper receipt. It is old and well known in the art the use of electronically transmitting shipping labels or a tracking number with a barcode.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 9-11, 14 and 19 are allowed.
8. Claims 28-35 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim.

Terminal Disclaimer

9. The terminal disclaimer filed 4/24/07 has not been approved.
10. An attorney or agent, not of record, is not authorized to sign a terminal disclaimer in the capacity as an attorney or agent acting in a representative capacity as provided by 37 CFR 1.34(a). See 37 CFR 1.321(b) and/or (c).

Response to Arguments

11. With respect to the 112 rejection: There are a couple of issues which the amendment has not corrected.
12. With respect to the Double Patenting rejection: The TD has not been approved due to the fact that it was not signed by an attorney of record, therefore the double patenting rejection remains in the case.
13. It should also be noted that when filing a new set of claims, the dependency of claim 19 was changed to claim 9 on a previous amendment, yet the mark ups are still present. Mark-ups of claims are only allowed when the claims are currently amended.

Conclusion

14. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
